Assignment 0

Due: January 14, 2020 at 10:00 PM

Delivery Instructions:

- Include your full name and student ID.
- No late submissions allowed.
- Submit your assignment through iLearn

- (1) Group formation. You are required to work in a group of 3-4 students. State your group members information (name and student ID) in the alphabetical order of first name.
- (2) Mini-topic presentation bids. You are required to present a research paper/article as part of your coursework. The presentations are organized in mini-topics, and their schedule is posted on the course website. Each mini-topic will be presented by several students. State 4-5 preferences for mini-topics in which you are willing to participate in order of preference, so the first mini-topic is the most preferred one, then the second, etc. The assigned mini-topics will be announced on iLearn announcements.
