Assignment 0

Due: April 6, 2018 at 10:00 PM

Notes

- Include your full name and student ID.
- No late submissions allowed.
- Submit your assignment through iLearn

- (1) Group formation. You are required to work in a group of two students. State your group members information (name and student ID).
- (2) Paper presentation bids. You are required to present research papers as part of your course work. The paper presentations schedule is posted on the course website. State three preferences for papers to present in order of preference, so the first paper is the most preferred one, then the second and the third. You will be informed with the assigned papers the following week.
